ELEV8 STUDIOS: Risk Assessment / Website Private Member Terms & Conditions.

N.B. By becoming a member of our our private area of the ELEV8 STUDIOS website, where all of our home study resources are stored, you acknowledge that you have thoroughly read this document and agree to the terms and conditions set out within this document.

Note to pupils: When you are following a video tutorial / practice session, some things you might find easy in class might be more difficult at home. You must not do a video if you are home without a grown up. We would prefer if your parent / guardian is in the room. If anything hurts or feel uncomfortable, please stop. You must make sure there is nothing around your feet like wires you can trip on or rugs you can slip on. If you think you might not have enough room to do something, please do not do it. You should keep water near by and ensure you stay hydrated, but please don't keep your water bottle or cup near your computer or device. Although you are at home, it is best to wear your usual uniform or suitable dance wear for each video, not only is this safer, it will help you get in 'in the zone' for each style! Please ensure you do a warm up video before anything else. Safety First. Enjoy your home study, Angela & Sarah.
